Nelson Hall, a co-ed hall, is the tallest building on the MSUM campus. Each floor has a centrally located study room. A main lounge, located on the twelfth floor (with a great view!), contains a public TV and a kitchen. There are also stoves and laundry facilities on each floor. The weight room is on the lower level. The first floor lobby, where visitors can wait for their resident escorts, contains several vending machines.

- All Residence Halls are entirely smoke-free.
- 11th floor is for students who have earned 30 or more credits.
- Beds can be lofted
- 4th and 8th floors are for male students
