1. Max Taha gave out information pertaining to the various Homecoming events and methods for participation.
2. Max informed members of cultural event in Sri Lankan restaurant in Minneapolis, including special songs and dances. The cost is $45 per adult and $30 for college students. The event is to be held on October 9th.
3. A reminder was given to international students to check their mail in the International Student Office that has been piled up over the summer.
4. Ms. Carrie from NDSU came especially to inform members about the International Student Discussion Group in NDSU, helping to break cultural barriers and talk about issues international students face.
5. Max updated everyone on the progress of the International Tigers soccer team results in the Intramural tournament, with one loss and one convincing victory.
6. Bowling night was discussed. Unfortunately, Madhara informed the club that Fridays may seem difficult to arrange this activity.
7. The Camping Trip is nearly finalized for the morning of Saturday, September 25th. It is to be free for all who want to go, but they must use the sign-up sheet on the ISC MSN website or email Max about their participation.
8. Erik invited everyone to a dodgeball game outside Holmequest Hall at 10pm.
9. Saqib and Asphand gave an illustrative presentation on Pakistan with a surprising ending. Presentation on Armenia expected next week.
