Meeting started at 6:08 pm

1. Max started the meeting with information about the upcoming International Education Week, from November 15th to November 19th. Members were highly encouraged to arrange an event during this period, highlighting features of their respective country, by contacting Jill Holsen, Director of International Programs, at holsenj@mnstate.edu.
2. Temi gave a formal introduction of the Cultural Diversity Committee, an administrative division under the Student Senate. Its purpose is to work towards underrepresented populations, helping their respective student organizations and seeing that any case of discrimination or bias on campus be addressed to the proper authorities. Its meeting are held every Wednesday, 7pm, in the CMU Room 214.
3. Max gave a run down over the remaining homecoming events, including the Doo Dah Parade and the Formal Dance in the CMU Ballroom Saturday, October 2nd at 9pm.
4. The Slavic Culture Club will arrange a movie night in Nelson Hall for a Russian comedy at 7:30 pm after the meeting. People are expected to meet in the NGH loop. Food and drinks will be served.
5. Max conducted a review over last week's camping trip to Lake Itasca, asking for each member's comments and criticisms.
6. Issues relating to the International Student Club's budget may be raised next meeting.
7. Temi and Kemi's presentation on Nigeria has been postponed to next week, due to the unavailability of a projector at this time.
