

Antiracist Multiculturalism Across the Curriculum Workshop

May 15-18; August 16, 2007

Coordinated by the MSUM TOCAR Academics Unit

The MSU Moorhead TOCAR (Training Our Campuses Against Racism) Academics Unit is sponsoring its 2nd Annual Antiracist Across the Curriculum Workshop. The workshop will provide intensive training for approximately 20 MSU Moorhead faculty on how to better incorporate antiracism content and concepts into courses across the campus.

This training is a 4-day workshop in May led by nationally recognized presenters with a one day follow-up in August and on-going follow-ups in 2007-2008. Participants will develop curriculum modifications for existing or new courses with implementation in future semesters.

Goal: To help faculty incorporate antiracist, multicultural content into courses across the curriculum

Dates: May 15-18: Tuesday 5/15: 2:00-9:00PM
Wednesday & Thursday 5/16 & 5/17: 8:30AM-4:30PM
Friday 5/18: 8:30AM-3:00PM
TBA – An opportunity for discussion with 2006 participants on Wed. or Thurs. evening.

Thursday, August 16 (tentative): 9AM-3:00PM follow-up for project participants
Spring 2008 (TBA): Follow-up (tentative)

Presenters: Victor Rodriguez, Ph.D., California State University Long Beach
Emily Drew, Ph.D., Willamette University
(from 2006 participants: “Excellent! Incredible! Very knowledgeable, informative, inspirational”; “...depth & breadth of knowledge, good humored; conscious of our needs...”)

Stipend for Participants: $1000 plus meals and materials

Pre-requisite for Participants:

Prior to the May workshop, all participants should have participated in either the TOCAR Level I or Level II training (Note: Level II may be taken without having taken Level I). If you have not previously been through this training, opportunities to do so will be available for Level I training on Friday January 26 and for Level II training on February 15-17 (Thurs. evening and all day Fri. & Sat.). The May workshop will particularly build on the Level II training.

Applications are encouraged from faculty in all colleges across campus. Our presenters highly recommend that teams of faculty apply, however, this is not mandatory.

Application deadline: January 29, 2007
(Application form is attached or on reverse side)

For more information, contact Phyllis May-Machunda at maymach@mnstate.edu; 477-2975

Application
Antiracist Multiculturalism Across the Curriculum Workshop
May 15-18; August 16, 2007
(Application Deadline: January 29, 2007)

Name: _____

Department/Program: _____

Phone: _____ e-mail: _____

Team applications are encouraged, but not required. List any colleagues you plan to collaborate with who also are applying for the training. Collaborations may reflect focus on the same course or on courses within a department/program/interdisciplinary effort. Each person should file an individual application.

Collaborating colleagues:

_____

Which course(s) would you like to infuse with multicultural content? How often is the course taught and for how many students? Is this an existing course or a new course?

Course #/Name	Semester(s) taught	Enrollment	New/Existing
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

What benefits do you believe infusing anti-racist, multi-cultural content will bring to your course or program?

What prior experience do you have in multiculturalism and anti-racism?

**Previous participation in the TOCAR/MCARI Level I or Level II trainings is required.

Which have you participated in?     Level I     Level II     Neither

If Neither, are you able to commit to EITHER of the trainings on Jan. 26 OR Feb. 15-17? Circle one.

Return Form to Anita Bender, Box 31 (or tocar@mnstate.edu) by January 29.