

Turkey Declares War On The Allies

Washington Dispatch Says That England, Russia And France Are Named. It Is Declared That The German Forces Are Nearing The Fortifications Of Paris. Allies Fall Back To Southwest.

Paris, Sept. 3.—“The Germans are nearing the fortifications of Paris” says a dispatch from Gour nay, France.

Paris, Sept. 3.—All but two gates of Paris are closed. Fresh troops have been sent to the forts. German aeroplane that flew over this city and dropped five bombs, was wrecked by gun fire and the pilot killed.

Continuous fighting has been in progress along almost the entire battle line. The allied forces have fallen back toward the southwest, but how far is unknown.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 3.—The German garrison at Koenigsburg was defeated in a sortie with terrific loss of life. Fighting continues at Lemberg, in Galicia.

Washington, Sept. 3.—Turkey has declared war on England, Russia and France, is the report received here.