

WAR DEVELOPMENTS TODAY

An unconfirmed report from Paris declares that the German right wing under General Von Kluck has been broken and is being pursued by the allies. An offer to surrender is also mentioned. Official French and British statements maintain, however, that there is practically no change in the situation.

Germans are reported to have begun the siege of Antwerp by attacking two forts in the first line of the Belgian defense.

Tsing-Tau, the seat of the government of Kiao-Chow, the German possession in China, is reported to be completely invested by Anglo-Japanese forces.

Russians reaffirm their army has beaten the Austrians and crossed the Carpathian mountains and that the plains of Hungary are now at their mercy in onward march toward Budapest.

Town of Moel, Belgium, declared occupied and Molines again in possession of the kaiser's army.

Scarcity of food in Brussels is said to be cause of grave concern to inhabitants.

Information given out in Berlin denies the successes which the Russians attribute to their arms. The situation on the river Save is held unchanged.

Travelers reaching Copenhagen from the Kiel canal state that the canal is crowded with warships of all sorts, and that big new Krupp guns are being placed on the ships.