Options for Students Following

Sexual Violence, Partner Violence, Stalking, or Sexual Harassment

In an emergency, please call Public Safety at 218.477.2449.

For more information about MSUM's process and resources:

MNSTATE.EDU/TITLEIX

processes experiences differently. Resources and support are always available.

YES SUPPORT CONFIDENTIAL ► MSUM Counseling Services Support can include Counselors can meet with you, help you explore your options, academic flexibility, Now you can or refer you to off-campus therapists. Reports to Title IX counseling, or other Office only if imminent risk or harm to self or others. explore which resources to facilitate ▶ 218-477-2211 or mnstate.edu/counseling-services. options and self-care and healing. resources seem best for you. ANONYMOUS ► Rape and Abuse Crisis Center Provides confidential and free crisis intervention, advocacy, counseling, and education. RACC has no obligation to report to MSUM Title IX Office. Advocates are available REPORTING 24/7 through RACC's Crisis Line: ▶ 800.344.7273 Reporting could include filing a complaint under PRIVATE Do you MSUM Title IX grievance procedures, reporting to want to tell ▶ Dean of Students / Title IX Office law enforcement, or both. Coordinates support. Facilitates academic flexibility or someone? accommodations. Implements safety measures. Helps students understand procedural options and assists those pursuing MSUM grievance process. Support measures can be put into place without a formal complaint. ▶ 218.477.2391 or mnstate.edu/dean-students NO MSUM Only you can make this decision. Everyone

Dean of Students / Title IX Office Provides information about and helps navigate the Title IX process. You may speak to the Title IX Office about your options without disclosing all or any details, including the name of the accused. ▶ 218.477.2391

POLICE

MSUM Public Safety – Public Safety officers can help you connect with local law enforcement. ▶ 218.477.2449

Rape and Abuse Crisis Center – Advocates are available 24/7 to accompany you to hospital for evidence preservation exam. Support navigating law enforcement process. ▶ 800.344.7273