

Minnesota State University Moorhead

FINC 140: Issues in Personal Finance

A. COURSE DESCRIPTION

Credits: 3

Lecture Hours/Week: 3

Lab Hours/Week: .

OJT Hours/Week: .

Prerequisites: None

Corequisites: None

MnTC Goals: None

This course will embrace critical and multicultural thinking while it helps you plan for a successful life financially. This course explores structural racism by revealing the important role that family wealth plays in shaping life chances, how opportunities to accumulate wealth have been racialized, and the roots and consequences of the current race-based wealth gap. The course will stress the importance of personal financial management and introduces the principles of investments, and risk/return characteristics of several investment alternatives.

B. COURSE EFFECTIVE DATES: 01/09/2008 - 05/01/2017

C. OUTLINE OF MAJOR CONTENT AREAS

None

D. LEARNING OUTCOMES (General)

None

E. Minnesota Transfer Curriculum Goal Area(s) and Competencies

None

F. LEARNER OUTCOMES ASSESSMENT

As noted on course syllabus

G. SPECIAL INFORMATION

None noted