

Minnesota State University Moorhead

CNSA 670: Administration of Clinical Mental Health Services & Counseling Skills

A. COURSE DESCRIPTION

Credits: 3

Lecture Hours/Week: 3

Lab Hours/Week: .

OJT Hours/Week: .

Prerequisites: None

Corequisites: None

MnTC Goals: None

This course is intended to introduce Clinical Mental Health Counseling, provide an overview of the history of community based counseling services, examine the practices of clinical counseling and the roles and task of clinical mental health professional professionals, and the characteristics of clients are considered. The topics of policy and advocacy in counselors. Clinical mental health counseling and mental health settings, relationships with other community based agency counseling settings as well as the identity of clinical mental health counselors are covered.

B. COURSE EFFECTIVE DATES: 10/08/2014 - 11/18/2019

C. OUTLINE OF MAJOR CONTENT AREAS

None

D. LEARNING OUTCOMES (General)

None

E. Minnesota Transfer Curriculum Goal Area(s) and Competencies

None

F. LEARNER OUTCOMES ASSESSMENT

As noted on course syllabus

G. SPECIAL INFORMATION

None noted