

Minnesota State University Moorhead

ED 767: Organization & Administration of Educational Leadership

A. COURSE DESCRIPTION

Credits: 3

Lecture Hours/Week: 3

Lab Hours/Week: 0

OJT Hours/Week: .

Prerequisites: None

Corequisites: None

MnTC Goals: None

Throughout this course, theory and practice of leadership is applied to educational settings. Students are exposed to leading educational and managerial organizational leadership theories and change theory with emphasis on their implementation in practical educational settings. Students will analyze philosophical and values anchors, vision casting, shared priorities and commitments, and vision through policy and program development. This course engages students in the study of major organization theories that inform educational leadership research. Students will use theory to help inform their own research interests.

B. COURSE EFFECTIVE DATES: 09/02/2016 - Present

C. OUTLINE OF MAJOR CONTENT AREAS

D. LEARNING OUTCOMES (General)

1. Demonstrate a solid understanding of formal leadership and organization theory through discussion, presentation and written paper assignments.
2. Engage in conversations to explore topics in their field of interest that represent opportunities for further investigation.
3. Read research literature and present persuasive written and oral critiques.
4. Use theory to frame researchable questions and use existing literature to inform problems relating to research and professional practice.

E. Minnesota Transfer Curriculum Goal Area(s) and Competencies

None

F. LEARNER OUTCOMES ASSESSMENT

As noted on course syllabus

G. SPECIAL INFORMATION

None noted