

1. Establish wireless connection

- a. Connect your computer/tablet to one of the following broadcast wireless networks.
 - i. Students – DragonConnect-Student
 - ii. Employees – DragonConnect-Employee

2. Open ShareLink application

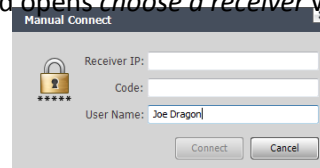

- a. If you don't have the application on your computer please follow the application install instructions located at www.mnstate.edu/information-technology/services/sharelink/.

3. Enable Sharelink

- a. When you are in a ShareLink enabled room you will find a ShareLink button on the audio/video selection console.

4. Enter connection information

- a. Wait for the application to finish searching and opens choose a receiver window.
- b. Click on the manual button.
- c. Enter IP Address listed on the screen.
- d. Enter the Code listed on the screen.
- e. The username field is only for identification.
- f. Click on connect

A dialog box titled "Manual Connect" with a lock icon. It contains three input fields: "Receiver IP:", "Code:", and "User Name:". The "User Name" field contains the text "Joe Dragon". Below the fields are "Connect" and "Cancel" buttons.

5. Start video connection

- a. If multiple people will be displaying content at the same time, then choose one of the four quadrants to display your video. Other words leave it at full screen.
- b. Press the play button.

