(Note: February class will be held on Feb. 7)

Sessions will be held at Minnesota State University Moorhead, Center for Business

Program   Focus Areas
... Nonprofit Board Governance   ... Marketing
... Legal and Accounting Issues Facing Nonprofits   ... Social Media
... Ethics   ... Leadership
... Human Resources Management/Administration   ... Innovation

How Will I Benefit?
Sessions are presented in an interactive, experiential learning environment where participants learn to apply knowledge and techniques to their own nonprofit. Attendees have the opportunity to network with other nonprofit professionals, including other attendees and presenters. The goal of this program is to increase the long-term success of your nonprofit.

Who Should Attend?
Presidents, executive directors and leaders of nonprofit organizations are the target audience for this leadership training. One registration allows any one person from your organization to attend each session. Please send the person who would benefit most from the session topic. If your nonprofit has been part of this program in the past, please notice there have been some updates to content and presenters.

What is the Cost?
The total program cost is $395. Lunch is provided.

Who Are the Presenters?
The presenters are nonprofit professionals recognized as experts in their fields. More information on presenters and topics can be found at www.mnstate.edu/cbi.
