Topic: Discussion Introduction

The Discussions tool provides a place for users to communicate by posting messages into defined topic areas and responding to messages posted by others.

The Discussion tool can be used for online discussions between students and instructors.

You may be asked to create messages relating to readings, class activities, group projects, or useful resources which you think might be of interest to other students.

Accessing Discussion:

- Log into D2L Brightspace, go to your Course.
- Click Communication, click Discussions.
