Topic: Creating a Basic Recording (Macintosh)

Login to your Panopto account

1. Go to http://coursecast.mnstate.edu/CourseCast to log into the Panopto server (where your recordings are stored).
2. From the "Sign in using" drop-down list, select StarID.
3. Username: Enter your StarID (e.g., ab1234cd).
4. Password: Enter your StarID password.
5. Click [Sign In].

Creating a Basic Recording

1. Click the [Create New Recording] button.

   The most basic kind of recording is a screen capture, where Panopto will record your entire computer screen and show anything you do on your computer.
You can Login and choose where you want your session to be uploaded or wait until you're done with the session and choose after.

2. Press the [Start Recording] button when you're ready to begin recording.
3. When you are done recording, click [Stop Recording].
