Students,

Our highest priorities remain your health and safety and helping you successfully complete the academic year. As the week comes to an end, we have some positive news to share with you.

Get Ready for Classes - Student Quick Guide to Online Learning
We are here to help as you navigate the changes in course delivery and campus services due to COVID-19. No matter where you are, we want to provide you with the resources you need to succeed when classes resume on Monday, March 30. Our Quick Guide to Online Learning is intended to provide you with a snapshot of resources and links for more information.

The guide includes:

- Questions? We Are Here to Help You
- Online Learning Tools: How-To Guides
- Online Learner Resources and Support

A Message from President Anne to the Graduating Class of Spring 2020
When we communicated the cancelation of the May 15 ceremony, we did not intend to communicate that we wouldn't celebrate with Spring 2020 graduates. Watch this video from President Anne to find out more:

Watch on Facebook
Watch on Twitter

Thank you for your patience as we do our best in the face of an uncertain and rapidly changing situation.

Jean Hollaar
Vice President Finance & Administration
Minnesota State University Moorhead
www.mnstate.edu